

Job1Stop

The First-Class Resource for Second-Chance Jobs

Announcing the revolutionary employment assistance app specifically designed as a one-stop shop for individuals with arrest or conviction records and their families.

Job1Stop:

- ✔ Addresses the specific challenges of securing second-chance jobs, because it's founded and staffed by people who have been justice-impacted themselves.
- ✔ Helps individuals with records understand how their backgrounds, experiences, education and training match up with job opportunities – features that regular job boards can't offer.
- ✔ Identifies and compiles targeted job openings from across the internet, then combines them with valuable support materials to assist with the entire job-search process – start to finish.
- ✔ Empowers job-seekers to secure valuable and lasting employment (not just temporary jobs), encouraging long-term career achievements.
- ✔ Provides unique insights to help individuals confidently and effectively navigate the job market, and to improve employment opportunities.
- ✔ Includes collaborative tools for family and friends, recognizing their important role in post-incarceration success.
- ✔ Utilizes a straightforward, simple operating system that is easy to use and navigate on tablets and terminals, as well as on the web for family and friends.
- ✔ Encourages a sense of fulfillment and well-being with a thoughtful interface specifically designed with your population's best interests – and best outcomes – at heart.

At Securus, we believe that every advancement we can make with the technology offered in your facility is worth exploring. Job1Stop is just another example of that commitment.

This comprehensive, upgraded employment resource replaces Honest Jobs, which was only available on the tablet. We are excited to offer you, your population and their loved ones the next generation of reentry career solutions...
